A screenshot of a web application interface for adding a contact. The interface is divided into two main sections: 'View Contact' and 'Add Contact'. In the 'View Contact' section, there is a 'Group' dropdown menu with 'Family' selected, and a 'Go' button. An orange arrow points to the 'Family' option in the dropdown, with the text 'Select Group' next to it. In the 'Add Contact' section, there are input fields for 'First Name*' (containing 'Tom'), 'Last Name' (containing 'Jack'), and 'Mobile #*' (containing '90xxxxxxxx'). Below the 'Mobile #' field, there is a red note: 'Eg. 8090606090'. There is also an 'Add to Group' dropdown menu with 'Family' selected. An orange arrow points to the 'Add Contact' button at the bottom right, with the text 'Click here to Add' next to it. A red note at the bottom left says: 'Note: Add only 250 records in a particular Group'. The entire form is enclosed in a dashed green border.

Now the contact has been Successfully Added to the Group.
